I removed the Microsoft OneNote (the last one I installed) then tried to remove the Microsoft Office screensaver but it is not possible. I tried to remove the screensaver via the user interface, but also it does not work. I also tried to use the Task Manager to end the process of the screensaver, but also without success. How do I uninstall the screensaver? Thank you For some reason, after spending a lot of time in SS after installing MS Office 2010 I want to remove the MS Office screensaver - the only one that remains in SS. I removed the Microsoft OneNote (the last one I installed) then tried to remove the Microsoft Office screensaver but it is not possible. I tried to remove the screensaver via the user interface, but also it does not work. I also tried to use the Task Manager to end the process of the screensaver, but also without success. How do I uninstall the screensaver? Thank you Thank you so much for your answer, Joacim! It was all done and tested now. I am very glad that I found your answer. If the required screensaver is in Windows 10, it is possible to install it from the store. The screensaver is called "Maui". The app is free, so there is nothing to worry about. Regards Hi, I was having trouble finding a solution to this problem. I have my ubuntu 10.04 LTS to be an automatic screen saver. But every time when i set the display brightness to 0, the screen saver doesn't turn on, its fixed at max brightness. I really hope there's a solution to this, because i really need my screen to be automatic, since i'm not using it all the time. I think this is what you are asking about: Ubuntu (as default) doesn't have a screensaver. But it is possible to add one. Here is how to do it: Thank you, this is exactly what
