Fifa 22 Features Key:

- Hyper-Realistic A.I. and True Player Phenomenon – The year-long evolution of Jochen Zeitz and the team at EA SPORTS has made the most natural and authentic human player models ever seen in video games, thanks to unprecedented visual fidelity, and true-to-life player personality. Version 22 was fully rebuilt from the ground up, with over 400 improvements to gameplay systems, animations, physically-based rendering and weather effects.
- Creative Opportunities – New player movements and contextual animations make the A.I. respond to how players move on the pitch rather than always providing the same scripted, inflexible behavior in every situation. Players now adapt to their teammates and opponents, using natural movement to control the pitch, create space, and chase down the ball.
- Advanced ball physics and player-to-ball contact – The simple, intuitive ball physics. now operate at an unprecedented level of detail and precision, offering more variety of play styles. The repositioned center of gravity for players means that every player has their own unique ball kick, pin and flick characteristics; a new, full player model means that every tackle, block, pass and shot is handled with complete realism, and new collision detection systems mean that players can apply realistic contact and pressure in numerous scenarios.
- Grand Designs – Ultimate Team is backed by a different kind of virtual stadium: with 22 players on the pitch, Ultimate Team stadiums have been enhanced to a level never before seen in FIFA. Each stadium is now bigger and more grand than ever, and includes other unique touches, like interactive touchlines and new 3D club mascots.

- Impressive environments - FIFA 22 has some of the most photorealistic and dynamic outdoor environments ever made in a FIFA game. Still in development, the recreation of the new 3D FIFA 22 stadiums still needs to be completed, but you can already explore the visual delights of the new outdoor environments: from the vibrant patches of grass and new player models on the pitch to the anticipation and excitement of the crowds awaiting the kickoff. Multiple weather effects are also now baked into the game, allowing you to enjoy the changing of the seasons in your own game.
- New Commentary and Improved Gameplay - The official game voiceover has been re-recorded and features 17 unique commentators, as well as 7 new audience members, each with their own unique commentary styles. The new "Voice of the Lionesses" football commentator has also Everything about the game is looking and feeling more real than ever before, and it's wonderful to play." Troy Alves Football Legend "There are a lot of familiar faces when you're playing this year's FIFA. You'll encounter friends and opponents and be able to interact with them, on and offline. It's really a big step forward for FIFA." Simon Green Senior Producer, FIFA 2K "The new ball physics in FIFA help bring the action to life, when you pass a ball to an opponent with little technique, the ball always moves in the direction you're facing. I'm really excited to see just how the players will react to the new ball physics, as I certainly noticed a difference." Jordan East Lead Engineer, FIFA 2K "The new free-kick system we've developed this time around gives players a new way to earn a penalty kick. You can pick your run up freely, making it more challenging to strike the ball into the penalty area, and you'll receive a head start with the ball being awarded to you, as well as the direction you want it to go in. The goalkeepers will have to time their dive in better, but we feel this could enhance the free kick play." Rob Mackenzie Gameplay Lead, FIFA 2K "Back in FIFA 17, the ball felt thick and sluggish, so we tried to soften the feeling by making the ball more forgiving. We've taken that a step
