Social Links Facebook Twitter Pinterest LinkedIn While the average lifespan of an Apple TV is about two years, there are a few things you should keep in mind when looking to buy one. If you're looking to pick one up from the Apple store, you'll have to wait for about a month and a half to two months to get one since most stock is being sold as part of a Black Friday promotion. But if you're in the market for a used Apple TV, you might want to wait a bit longer to get it. While you can still find a good deal on Apple TV second-hand, you won't find any for cheap and won't be getting any warranty. While Roku has been criticized for being a somewhat blunt force, it's still a viable way to get yourself a cheap streaming box. We tested out both a 2016 Roku Stick and 2017 Roku Premiere and found the Premiere to be the clear winner. The Roku Stick is likely to be much cheaper, but given the content advantage of the Premiere, that may not be a factor in your purchase. Amazon Fire TV is a good option for a streaming box with a 4K HDR support. Currently, the list of compatible devices is not very d0c515b9f4
