The game will also feature FIFA Ultimate Team Premium rewards as part of the enhancements. Players will be able to collect the best-in-class real-life players for the very first time in the game with titles from virtually every country, in real life. Aerial Dribbling – Players will be able to block, evade or catch the ball with greater accuracy, thanks to the power of the new physics engine. This is achieved through new AI routines, improved ball physics and a real-life model that allows the players to be flexible and naturally adapt to different situations. Off-ball Play – Players will be able to more accurately create space for their teammates by creating and maintaining more realistic off-ball movement through new on
